UPDATE: Mandatory Countywide Curfew

Flagler County has issued an emergency order extending the curfew from 7 a.m. Monday morning to noon.

"A county-wide curfew goes into effect tonight at 7pm through noon on Monday," Sheriff Rick Staly said. "I know this is an inconvenience but this is for your safety and the protection of the community."

The ban on the sale of alcohol continues and includes bars and restaurants in addition to liquor stores and grocery stores.

"As the storm approaches and the weather becomes more severe, please seek shelter indoors," Sheriff Staly said. "We have the potential for downed power lines, debris and traffic lights going out. The safest thing you can do is remain indoors until Law Enforcement is able to notify the public that it is safe."

Contact the Flagler County Emergency Information line at (386)586-5111 for any hurricane related questions. Follow the Flagler County Sheriff's Office on Facebook and flaglercounty.org/IRMA.
