Sheriff and Community Members to Present Awards to Agency Personnel for Exceptional Service

Sheriff Rick Staly is hosting the Flagler County Sheriff's Office Quarterly Awards Ceremony to recognize employees who have gone above and beyond to protect and serve our community.

WHO: Sheriff Rick Staly

WHAT: Quarterly Awards Ceremony

WHEN: Wednesday, January 24, 2018 at 2:00 p.m.

WHERE: Sheriff's Operations Center, 901 E. Moody Blvd., Bunnell, FL 32110

Deputy Philip Conway will be presented a lifesaving award for saving a woman following a traffic crash that left her pinned and partially under water. Deputy Conway and Corporal Joe Barile removed the windshield of the vehicle and Deputy Conway pulled the woman to safety. The woman and her husband will also be present at the ceremony.

Palm Coast Taco Bell will recognize agency members who caught an armed robbery suspect who attempted to rob Taco Bell at gunpoint through the drive-thru window on December 26th. In addition, all agency members involved will receive a Unit Citation from the Sheriff.

"The men and women of the Flagler County Sheriff's Office do an exceptional job day and night," said Sheriff Staly. "I'm honored to be able to highlight so many members of our agency and let them know that their great work does not go unnoticed."

A total of seventy employees will be recognized in the categories of certificate of commendation, distinguished service certificate, employee of the month, years of service, and more.
