Division Chief Graduates Rigorous FBI National Academy

Community Policing Division Chief Paul Bovino graduated from the 271st session of the FBI National Academy (FBINA) in Quantico, Virginia on March 16. Less than 1% of all law enforcement officers receive the invitation to this prestigious 10-week academy during their career. Sheriff Rick Staly graduated from the 177th session of the FBINA and was in attendance for Chief Bovino's graduation.

"We are very proud of Chief Bovino," Sheriff Staly said. "This caliber of training will enhance his abilities to train and lead the men and women of the Flagler County Sheriff's Office."

The FBI National Academy is a 10-week program for law enforcement leaders and serves to improve the administration of justice in law enforcement agencies in the United States and worldwide (www.fbi.gov).

Chief Bovino started his career in law enforcement with the Flagler County Sheriff's Office in 1996 as a Deputy Sheriff. While working at the Sheriff's Office, Chief Bovino has been dedicated to providing true leadership to those under his command.
