Another Drug House Closed for Business

On Friday, the Flagler County Sheriff's Office (FCSO) Special Investigations Unit (SIU), with the assistance of the FCSO tactical team and the Flagler Beach Police Department (FBPD), executed a Search Warrant at 160 Lantana Avenue in Flagler Beach. This Search Warrant was granted due to a thorough investigation into the narcotics dealings of Jamie Bullock, 36, the owner of the property.

SIU had executed a Search Warrant at the same residence in December of 2018 after receiving numerous tips on the illegal narcotics dealings occurring at that address. Bullock was ultimately charged with Possession of Cocaine with Intent to Sell, Tampering with or Destroying Evidence, and Possession of a Controlled Substance. Bullock posted bond on those charges and returned to the residence shortly after.

Since December, narcotics activity has resumed at the residence. The FCSO and FBPD again began receiving complaints from citizens of Flagler Beach due to the illegal activity.

Leading up to the Search Warrant executed on Friday, the investigation revealed that Bullock was again selling Cocaine out of the residence.

During the search, Bullock was found to be in possession of additional narcotics and was charged with Possession of Cannabis over 20 grams, Possession of a Schedule III Controlled Substance, and Possession of Drug Paraphernalia. Bullock was arrested and booked at the Sheriff Perry Hall Inmate Detention Facility where she is being held on No Bond due to already being out on bond from the search warrant and arrest in December of 2018.

“She had a chance to clean up her act but she went right back to selling poison,” Sheriff Rick Staly said. “Great work by our detectives and the Flagler Beach Police Department for staying on top of this drug house and shutting it down. Thank you to the community members who saw this occurring and reported it.”

Additional charges for Sale of Cocaine are still pending on Bullock.
