FCSO Unveils "Make the Choice to Raise Your Voice" Video Campaign

The Flagler County Sheriff's Office (FCSO) unveiled a new video entitled "Make the Choice to Raise Your Voice" on their social media and YouTube sites on Thursday. FCSO hopes that this video will educate students on the consequences they may face should they decide to make threats of violence.

FCSO wants to remind residents and students that there are multiple ways to report suspicious activity and threats. If you see something, say something! Report suspicious activity to FCSO at 386-313-4911 or to Crime Stoppers at 1-888-277-TIPS. Tips can also be submitted by emailing TIPS@flaglersheriff.com or by downloading the FortifyFL app or the FCSO app on an iPhone or Android device.

"We have investigated 11 school related incidents since December and we want to make it clear to students: if you make a threat, even in a joking manner, there will be consequences," Sheriff Rick Staly said. "We also want to remind everyone to report any suspicious activity they see. 'Make the choice to raise your voice' by reporting it and let us investigate it. Something that might seem insignificant to
