Biketoberfest is Here; Drive Safe and Arrive Alive

The 27th Annual Biketoberfest runs October 17-20, 2019 and Sheriff Rick Staly has authorized increased patrols countywide with a focus on A1A and US1. Biketoberfest is an annual motorcycle rally hosted in Daytona Beach and is expected to draw more than 125,000 visitors. Many visitors pass through Flagler County or attend events at venues along A1A, US1, and SR 100.

The Flagler County Sheriff's Office will have increased patrols countywide with a focus on A1A and US1. The DUI patrol unit will also be in effect Friday through Sunday. Message boards will be displayed at high-traffic areas to remind drivers to "Watch for Bikes; Look Twice to Save a Life."

"Residents and visitors can expect increased traffic on our roads and an increase in motorcyclists," Sheriff Staly said. "We welcome the visitors to our great community and our main goal is to keep everyone safe. Watch for bikers before changing lanes or driving through intersections. Looking twice could save a life. As always, drive sober and free from distractions. "
