Sheriff Staly Provides List of Names and Addresses of Sexual Offenders to Avoid on Halloween Day

Flagler County Sheriff's Office Deputies, along with Probation and Parole Services, are making visits to the homes of all registered sex offenders from October 29 through the 31st (Halloween Day) to verify registered addresses and to ensure that those with provisions related to the holiday are following all rules and restrictions.

Of the 131 registered sexual offenders living in Flagler County, there are 28 that have specific sanctions stating they cannot hand out candy, decorate for the holiday, or leave their porch light on during Halloween. These limitations are designed to protect children from potential threats from sexual offenders or predators. Sheriff's Deputies and probation officers will visit the homes of all 28 offenders with these sanctions on Halloween day to conduct a walkthrough of their residence and instruct them to not decorate their homes for Halloween, distribute candy, or otherwise participate in Halloween. These offenders must be in their home by 4:30 p.m. on Halloween day and remain inside for the rest of the night.

The operation will be managed by FCSO's new Sexual Offender and Predator Detective. This new position was funded by a $150,000.00 grant awarded to FCSO by the Department of Justice for the SMART FY 2019 in support of the Adam Walsh Act Implementation Grant Program. This grant will be used to fund the dedicated sexual offender and predator detective to ensure compliance of offenders.

"There are strict rules for sex offenders in order to make sure our children stay safe from them. Having a dedicated detective to oversee these offenders will send a strong message that we expect compliance and will allow us to more easily spot violations," Sheriff Rick Staly said. "Halloween is a fun holiday for children and families and we want to make it as safe as possible."

In addition to visiting the 28 offenders with specific Halloween provisions, Sheriff's Deputies are visiting all registered sexual offenders in the county as part of an address verification operation by the Florida Sheriff's Association Task Force titled "Operation Hallowed Streets." Deputies will take
