Sheriff Presents 'Great Kids' Awards for October

On Wednesday morning, Sheriff Rick Staly visited three local schools to present three exceptional students with awards for being "Great Kids" for the month of October.

"We started this tradition last year and got to meet some wonderful students. We really have some great kids in Flagler County that are setting good examples for others and they deserve to be recognized," said Sheriff Staly. "It is an honor to give them an award for being a great role model."

Sheriff Staly presents Daniel with the Great Kid award, joined by mom (in red).

Daniel Shevchenko is a student at Old Kings Elementary. Daniel is always polite and treats others with respect. He is also an enthusiastic student providing guidance to those in need, serving as a great role model and leader for his campus and peers.

Sheriff Staly presents Damaris with the Great Kid award, joined by mom (in gray).

Damaris Ferreiro is a student at Indian Trails Middle School. Damaris demonstrates strong dedication and commitment to maintaining a high degree of academic excellence. Damaris is a wonderful role model for her campus and peers. She is always polite, courteous, and treats others with respect.

Sheriff Staly presents Chalyn “CP” with the Great Kid award, joined by dad, coach, and the FPC football team.

Chalyn Parks is a student at Flagler Palm Coast High School. Chalyn is an FPC running back for the school football team and a member of the track team. Chalyn volunteers his free time with the FCSO SWEAT program, a Sheriff’s Office program geared at getting youthful offenders on the right track. He is a motivated athlete and role model for his peers and campus.

Sheriff Staly presents each “Great Kid” with an acrylic plaque, a certificate, and – new this year – a “Great Kid” bumper sticker.

The “Great Kids” award is presented by the Sheriff to a student selected by School Resource Deputies who show respect for their peers, help others, work hard to do well in academics, and represent
