Through the investigation, it was revealed that an altercation occurred outside the Coin Laundry on Belle Terre near Palm Coast Parkway. Deputies and Sheriff's detectives were able to interview witnesses and quickly identify a possible suspect.

"Our detectives worked swiftly and strategically to solve this murder investigation and were able to take Gavins Jr. into custody without anyone else getting hurt," Sheriff Rick Staly said. "This is a tragedy for two families, one who lost a son who was an aspiring athlete and the other whose son will likely spend the rest of his life in prison or face the death penalty. I hope this fast arrest will help the Gray family with their loss."

Deputies conducted a felony traffic stop on a car leaving the suspect's house on Saturday afternoon. Deputies along with our SWAT team served a search warrant at 23 Woodfaire Lane in Palm Coast on Saturday afternoon. The vehicle the suspect was in during the shooting was located in the garage but the suspect was not in the home and was not in the car previously stopped.

Around 2:00 p.m. on Sunday, deputies spoke with Gavins' mom. She agreed to meet at the Sheriff's District 2 Office in Palm Coast. At 3pm today Gavins turned himself in, with his mom present, and was arrested.

In 2015, he was arrested for violation of probation and possession of a weapon on school campus (an 8-inch kitchen knife). In 2016, he was arrested for domestic violence.
