"It is an honor to be selected to serve on the FSA Board alongside my peers," Sheriff Staly said. "I welcome the opportunity to help guide the efforts and direction of the Florida Sheriffs Association and its 67 member Sheriffs."

The FSA has been in existence since 1893 and is one of the oldest professional law enforcement associations in the country. Their mission is to foster the effectiveness of the sheriffs through leadership, innovation, legislative initiatives, education and training, while providing a unified voice for the protection of Florida's citizens and visitors. These law enforcement leaders are responsible for meeting the needs of 21st Century America. For more information, visit fisheriffs.org.
