Name That K-9! Flagler Sheriff Asks Public to Help Name FCSO's Newest K-9

The Flagler County Sheriff's Office is asking for the public's help in naming our newest K-9 partner who is joining the agency following the retirement of K-9 Valor.

The new K-9 is an 18-month-old Belgian Malinois. Deputy Robin Towns, a six-year veteran with the FCSO and newly transferred member to the FCSO K-9 Unit, will be his handler. Prior to his role on the FCSO K-9 Unit, Deputy Towns was a School Resource Deputy at Rymfire Elementary School, a patrol deputy and is a member of the Emergency Response Team (ERT).

"Deputy Towns will be a great addition to the K-9 Unit and we're excited to see him and his new partner become a great team," Sheriff Rick Staly said. "Before the new team can get to work, we need to find his K-9 a name! The community has helped us in the past and we're asking for your help again. We look forward to seeing what names are submitted for our newest K-9."
