Man Arrested for Molesting Thirteen Year Old Girl

The Flagler County Sheriff’s Office (FCSO) responded to 4427 Acorn Avenue in Bunnell after a warrant was signed for the arrest of 33-year-old Calib Callard (DOB 9/10/1986) after an investigation was completed by the FCSO Major Case Unit into the molestation of a juvenile.

The victim reported that she began a relationship with Callard when she was just thirteen years old. Their relationship took place from approximately April 2019 until August 2019. The victim told detectives that she and Callard would kiss and that he touched her private parts over her clothing.

Detectives met with Callard twice where he admitted to the relationship, claiming it was a normal boyfriend/girlfriend relationship. He told detectives that his drinking problem may have contributed to him having an inappropriate relationship with a minor.

“This is a child molester that took advantage of a child and needs to be locked up before he can harm this victim or anyone else,” Sheriff Rick Staly said. “For a grown 33-yeard old man to think a relationship with a 13-year old child is normal shows that he is a deranged individual. I hope the victim
Callard was arrested on the active warrant and charged with Lewd or Lascivious Molestation on a Victim 12-16 years old. He was booked into the Sheriff Perry Hall Inmate Detention Facility where he is being held on a $15,000.00 bond.

Callard has a previous arrest history in Flagler County for Possession and Sale of Methamphetamine, Aggravated Assault with a Deadly Weapon, Resisting Arrest, and Failure to Appear.
