Sheriff Rick Staly promoted David Williams on January 13, 2021 to Chief of the Organizational Services Division, making him the highest ranking African-American in the history of the FCSO. As Chief, he commands Management Services, Human Resources, Accreditation, Training and Special Projects.

"It is a great honor to be selected for this prestigious training and I know that Chief Williams will be a great representative of FCSO among his peers at this training," Sheriff Staly said. "Thank you to the FBI for providing this opportunity for Chief Williams.”

The FBI established FEDS as a training program designed to provide executive and management training to Florida Chiefs of Police, Sheriffs, and their command staff. It is an intensive 40-hour course which includes sessions on leadership, management, ethics, and other topics of interest to Florida’s law enforcement leaders.

The twenty-third session of the Florida Executive Development Seminar will take place in Sandestin, Florida, from May 16 to May 21, 2021.
