Wednesday morning, deputies were conducting traffic enforcement in Palm Coast's "P" Section when Catalan was recognized for his active warrants at a Palmwood Drive residence. Catalan was wanted in Flagler County for a Violation of Probation for Aggravated Assault with a Deadly Weapon and Written Threats to Kill/Do Bodily Harm.

Catalan has previously been charged with multiple counts of Aggravated Assault with a Deadly Weapon, multiple counts of Resisting Officer without Violence, multiple counts of Domestic Battery and Violation of Probation. He's also been arrested throughout the state of Florida for Driving with an Expired License and Failure to Appear for Worthless Checks.

Later around 4 p.m. Wednesday, Rollins was apprehended by the U.S. Marshal's Task Force for multiple felony warrants from St. John's County for violent crimes. He was also wanted in Flagler County for an active misdemeanor warrant for Failing to Appear for Driving Without a License.

Rollins was wanted in St. John's County for Animal Torture- Inflict Pain/Serious Physical Injury or Death, Violation of Probation reference Domestic Battery, Aggravated Assault with a Deadly Weapon, Firing a Weapon in Public or Residential Property and Possession of Weapon/Ammo in Violation of Domestic Violence Injunction in reference to Cyberstalking.

Rollins has previously been arrested in Flagler County for Burglary of an Occupied Dwelling, Grand Theft – Larceny, Burglary of an Unoccupied Conveyance, Burglary of an Unoccupied Structure and Grand Theft of a Motor Vehicle. He's also been arrested throughout the state of Florida for Reckless Driving, Flee to Elude Law Enforcement, Trespassing and Car Burglary.

"Here's another case of fugitives running from the law and trying to hide in Flagler County," Sheriff Rick Staly said. "These two dangerous criminals think they're above the law and can get away with their crimes. Well I'm here to remind them that they can't hide in Flagler County! This was a team effort by all involved and they are back behind bars where they belong."

Both Catalan and Rollin's were arrested for active warrants without incident. They're back behind bars at the Sheriff Perry Hall Inmate Detention Facility and are being held on no bond.
