Male on Felony Probation for Second Degree Murder Arrested After Driving Without a Valid Driver's License

A male on felony probation for murdering a 13-year-old boy in Orlando in 2009 was arrested by Flagler County Sheriff's Deputies on Saturday for violating the terms of his probation. 35-year-old Tarod Weaver of Orlando was stopped while driving near Pritchard Drive and Belle Terre Parkway.

Weaver advised to deputies during the traffic stop that although he was the driver of the vehicle, he does not possess a driver's license. Weaver was subsequently arrested for driving without a license, which is a violation of his probation. Weaver was taken to the Flagler County Inmate Facility without incident.

Duo Arrested for Drug Possession, Other Charges

A duo has been arrested after an FCSO Deputy witnessed them engage in a disturbance outside the Microtel located at 16 Kingswood Drive, Palm Coast, on Saturday.

After contacting the couple, the male, later identified as Tristan Marino, provided a false name to Deputies. Marino stated that he provided a false name because he believed that there was an active warrant for his arrest. While conducting a search of the vehicle, Deputies located several used hypodermic needles and other drug paraphernalia as well as a shotgun on the rear passenger floorboard.

The female, identified as Jennifer Chunn, is a convicted felon with a criminal history of lewd and lascivious behavior dating back to 2007. Chunn stated she was aware the shotgun was in the vehicle. Following her being placed under arrest for possession of a firearm by a convicted felon, Chunn advised Deputies that she had several grams of narcotics concealed within her female sexual organs. Within her body was 3.90 grams of methamphetamine, 0.71 grams of heroin, and 1.16 grams of fentanyl. She was additionally charged with possession of methamphetamine, heroin, and fentanyl.

Traffic Stop Leads to Arrest

On Sunday, Flagler County Deputies located a vehicle traveling on West Moody Boulevard and initiated a traffic stop due to the registered owner of the vehicle having a suspended license and an expired vehicle registration. Upon making contact with the driver, he refused to identify himself and became verbally aggressive. The occupant was later able to be identified as Mark Anthony Smith of Orlando.

During a search of the vehicle, Deputies located marijuana and other drug paraphernalia. Smith was charged with knowingly driving with a suspended license, possession of marijuana, possession of hashish, possession of drug paraphernalia, and resisting an officer without violence.
