tampering with a license plate in a local gas station parking lot. They had observed the same female at a known drug house earlier in the day.

While speaking to the female, later identified as Cynthia Metzler, deputies observed drug paraphernalia in plain view within the vehicle. Metzler and a second female on scene, Stephanie Robinson, were then detained.

Upon a probable cause search of the vehicle, narcotics and paraphernalia were located including Oxycodone, Hashish, and Marijuana. Metzler was placed under arrest for Possession of Oxycodone, Possession of Hashish, Possession of Marijuana, and Possession of Drug Paraphernalia/Equipment. She is being held at the Sheriff Perry Hall Inmate Detention Facility on $6,000 bond. Robinson was arrested for Possession of Drug Paraphernalia/Equipment.
