CASE #	TYPE	LOCATION	SUMMARY
--------	------	----------	---------

2018-75978	Disturbance-Domestic	Renshaw Place	O1 called 911 stating that she and O2, (lives at a different location), were being attacked by her boyfriend O3, at their residence. Prior to LEO arrival she advised that she made the story up and they weren't attacked. Once on scene deputies were given conflicting stories. O3 and O1 advised that they were fighting, so O2 attempted to go after O3, so O3 took O2 to the ground. O2 stated that he thought he heard them fighting so he tried to get in to help. O3 then kicked O2 to the ground, however O2 had no marks where he was kicked. O2 was picked up by O4 and O1 packed things and left. No charges.
2018-76008	Overdose	Plum Avenue	O1, found her 18 month old child eating an unknown white substance that believed to be a methadone tablet. The child was transported to FHF in stable condition and ISD responded. There is no indication of criminal activity. Admin page was sent and DCF notified.
2018-75942	Overdose	Hernandez	45 year old female was found unresponsive but breathing by her husband. The female was alert and cooperative when law enforcement and paramedics arrived. She admitted to using heroin and agreed to be transported to FHF by rescue 41. ISD was notified of the incident. See report by
2018-7575201	(Recovered) Stolen Vehicle	Madison Green Cir	Victim's vehicle was recovered by DBPD (Case #DB180016058) overnight and appeared abandoned. DBPD contacted the victim, who responded to retrieve his vehicle. Multiple items were located inside of the vehicle that did not belong to the victim. Items entered into evidence. Vehicle, tag, and decal removed from FCIC/NCIC.
