Part One UCR Crimes: Type of Call / Case Number / Address (Business Name) / Sector / Case Summary

Reckless Driver (Stolen Vehicle Recovered) / 113322-17 (113122-17) / 302 E Drain Street / Sector 311
Deputy observed an orange Mitsubishi Eclipse at the Racetrac gas station on E State Road 100 at approximately 4AM this morning. Upon reviewing the video, the two stolen vehicles seen at the gas pumps and one male entered into the store. Two 911 callers reported several vehicles extremely reckless in the South end of Bunnell. Deputies located the vehicles which were running stop signs and extremely reckless and they were determined to be the stolen vehicles from Rolling Sands Drive. Vehicle one crashed at S Anderson Street and E Court Street, where the single occupant fled on foot. Deputies observed a male matching the description on E Booe Street and pursued the male on foot and were able to detain him. S1 was positively identified and transported to FHF for medical clearance. S1 was charged with grand theft auto, aggravated fleeing and eluding, resisting without violence, reckless driving, no Florida driver's license and VOPX2 and was transported to DJJ. Vehicle 2 was later located abandoned at Zebu Place. Contact was attempted and successfully made with S2 and his mother at Palm Point Apartments. S2 was arrested for grand theft auto, aggravated fleeing and eluding, reckless driving, and no Florida DI. A third juvenile S3, was observed at Palm Point Apartments and was known to be on juvenile probation and arrested for curfew violation. Both vehicles were towed to FCSO impound lot for processing and removed as stolen.
