TYPE	CASE#	LOCATION	SUMMARY
Property Damage	20-47079	Cherokee Ct East	Units responded to this location in reference to a welfare check on the resident. A neighbor called advising that there was a vehicle running inside of the garage and that the elderly neighbor was not answering her door. Upon arrival, deputies attempted contact at the front door with no answer. The garage was secure and a vehicle could be heard running inside. There was heat radiating from the overhead garage door. Forced entry was made through the side garage door. Vehicle was found to be unoccupied and contact was eventually made with the homeowner inside the residence. Homeowner was medically cleared and had no medical complaints. It was determined that she left her vehicle running by mistake when she parked it. Deputy Spina.
Disturbance (Domestic)	20-47181	Rosewood Street	During a verbal argument over a living situation, S1 pushed the victim, grabbed her shirt and left the residence before law enforcement arrived on scene. Report by Deputy Gordon
Vehicle Fire	20-47273	Potatoville Road and Opal Ave (Flagler Estates)	RP and Witness reported an ATV on fire which in turn ignited the nearby wooded area. Both the RP and witness reported seeing a Hispanic female and black male near the ATV as they approached, the female appeared to have a minor injury. Both subjects then got into different vehicles and left the scene. Fire Departments from Flagler, St. Johns, and Putnam Counties extinguished the brush fire caused by the ATV. Report by Deputy Gordon
