TYPE	CASE#	LOCATION	SUMMARY
(Boat) Crash with Injuries	19-48791	Intracoastal Waterway Channel Marker 108	Sole operator of a wave runner was traveling in the Intracoastal Waterway approximately ½ mile north of Bings Landing. The adult operator attempted to avoid the heavy boating traffic and subsequently struck a sandbar, projecting the operator off the wave runner. The operator was transported by the FCSO Marine Unit to Bings Landing where he was turned over to Rescue 41 complaining of right leg pain. The operator was transported to Advent Health by Rescue 41. FWC responded and investigated the crash. FWC case number: FWNE0H008531.
Vehicle Burglary	19-48731	Brookhaven Dr	Sometime overnight an unknown person(s) broke the passenger side window to a Kia and stole a Michael Kors purse with matching wallet from the floorboard. Nothing else was missing and or disturbed.
Death	19-48765	Fort Caroline Ln	Adult male was found unresponsive. Paramedics arrived and performed lifesaving procedures; however, all efforts were unsuccessful and he was pronounced deceased. Nothing suspicious was observed.
Baker Act	19-48862	Pickering Ln	White female was taken into custody under a Baker Act.
Death	19-48926	Rolling Sands Drive	Adult female was found unresponsive by her son. Rescue 21 pronounced her as deceased upon their arrival. Nothing suspicious was observed.
Domestic Disturbance (Physical)	19-48854	Forest Park St	Other 1 (O1) and Other 2 (O2) were involved in a physical altercation following an argument over household concerns. O1 advised of being struck in the foot with an exercise weight by O2, and O2 advised of being grabbed on the back of the neck and arms by O1. Due to conflicting stories, no visible injuries and not having an independent witness the primary aggressor was unable to be determined, therefore an arrest was not made. Neither party wished to provide written statements. O2 voluntarily left the residence for a few days while law enforcement was on scene, ending the propensity for further violence. Report by Deputy Green.
