CASE #	TYPE	LOCATION	SUMMARY
65219-18	Grand theft –Follow Up	Longfellow Drive	It was discovered that S1 had stolen more items from her father and pawned them at cash it in pawn. She refused to make contact with him or law enforcement and would not return the vehicle. As a BOLO was being issued for the vehicle, Ormond Beach PD sent a TTY attempting contact with the owner of the vehicle due to them finding it abandoned. S1 was eventually located by Ormond Beach PD and detained for FCSO due to felony charges.
65569-18	Suspicious Incident	SR 100	O1 called 911 stating a man had pulled a "9mm pistol" on him and they were heading West on SR100. The male continuously hung up on dispatch, would not provide his name, what vehicle he was in, and was very uncooperative. Dispatch called multiple times and he would say a few words but then hang up. Eventually the male turned his phone off. Dispatch was eventually able to reach the victim over the phone and he first stated he didn't call 911, when pressed on the matter the male stated it was all a misunderstanding and it was not a gun but a "water pistol" and it was all a "big joke". O1 refused to meet with LEO or speak any further on the situation.
65591-18	Disturbance Domestic	Farragut Drive	S1 placed under arrest for domestic battery after it was determined that she struck her husband numerous times causing lacerations, scrapes, and marks that were also bleeding.
