CASE #	TYPE	LOCATION	SUMMARY
18-78035	Domestic Disturbance	Ivey Lane	O1 called and stated he told his wife, O2, that he wanted a divorce. O1 stated when he got home she had locked all of his guns and important documents in a safe and he wanted to know what his legal rights were to break the safe and retrieve his property. O2 call several hours later and wanted to know what her legal rights were to leave the house with their kids because when she got home O1 had removed the guns from the safe and hid them. O2 stated she did not need law enforcement to respond because O1 was not home and she was leaving. Both subjects stated no argument occurred and no threats were made.
18-77982	Burglary-Attempt	Seneca Path	A lawn maintenance man noticed the screen leading to the bathroom window ripped out and bent on the ground. Once on scene D/S McCarthy noticed pry marks on the rear door and side garage door. Entry was never made and nothing was reported missing.
18-77978	Burglary-residence	Fallon Ln	Victim advised an unknown subject entered his open garage on 8/13/18 between 10a – 1p and stole his 18" Trek Mountain Bike (SN # WTU337C1249F), valued at appx. $100. No visible cameras in the area. No suspect info available.
