Suspicious Incident	19-78850	Slowdrift Turn	Neighbors called worried that squatters were moving into the above address. Contact was made with the occupants of the house, who stated they were in the process of moving into the residence and had a signed lease. The lease was believed to be fraudulent, as it was supposedly signed by the former owner of the residence, who has been deceased for 3 years. The occupants advised that they would vacate the residence after loading their belongings back into the U-Haul truck. The "lease" was collected as evidence.
