CASE #	TYPE	LOCATION	SUMMARY
18-85222	Burglary Vehicle	E State Road 100	S1 was arrested in reference to battery x 2, burglary of a conveyance and criminal mischief. S1 was in a dispute over a "Funko Pop, Twinkie the Kid" collectable figurine. He then went to the vehicle of the two victims, ripped the figurine out of its packaging, stole the figurine and pushed V1 to the ground.
18-85217	Threats	Pennfield Lane	S1 made threats to show up and shoot his girlfriend and mother of his children, V1. V1 stated that he always carries a gun and believed what he was telling her. While on scene he called the victim and advised that he could see the cops there, giving accurate accounts of our actions and how many were on scene. Attempts to locate S1 were unsuccessful.
18-85226	Criminal Mischief	Belle Terre Pkwy (Indian Trails Sports Complex)	An employee with the city of Palm Coast advised that someone had broken the wall mounted EKLAY water fountain located at the restrooms near field #9 valued at $700.00.
18-85209	Larceny	Bayberry Street	V1 advised an Old Town dark blue canoe valued at $500 was stolen from the property between 9/5/18 and today.
18-85196	TS	Poinsetta Street and Canal Avenue	FCSO attempted to perform a traffic stop on a vehicle for speeding which fled towards Espanola. The vehicle was not pursued and it was eventually observed turning onto Whiteview Parkway from US1 and last seen on Rolling Sands Drive. Multiple residents in the area continued guiding Deputies towards the direction they saw the vehicle go, ending around the Ryan Drive / Rae Drive area. During a canvass of those areas Deputies observed a black male walking down Ryan Drive who fled into the woods. A perimeter was established and K9 was called out. The vehicle was located abandoned near Ryberry Drive. S1 was eventually arrested on Rymshaw and charged with aggravated fleeing and eluding, loitering and prowling, resisting without violence and violation of probation reference burglary.
