CASE #	TYPE	LOCATION	SUMMARY
18-26396	Disturbance Domestic	Piedmont Drive	V1 stated that S1 grabbed her phone and her left forearm and forcibly yanked on her arm and phone pulling her shoulder out of the socket. V1 said S1 refused to give her phone back and she proceeded to her house at Piedmont to call 911. Contact with S1 was not conducted as he left before LEO arrival. Charges for domestic battery and grand theft forwarded to SAO.
18-26399	Disturbance Domestic	Zoeller Ct.	A juvenile and parent were involved in a domestic disturbance.
18-26443	Burglary Vehicle	Kaywood Place	V1 advised that she left her wallet in her vehicle and did not lock the doors. This evening she realized her wallet containing her Florida DL, two credit cards and $20.00 U.S. Currency was gone.
18-26423	Assault Battery	Belle Terre Parkway	O1 advised that her son, V1, was physically attacked by another student and that student's father.
18-26460	Threats	Birchshire Lane	V1 was previously in a relationship with S1 and he has been sending her threatening text messages and emails. Charges for stalking and written threats will be passed to dayshift in an attempt to locate and arrest S1.
18-26435	Missing Person	9 Wainwood Place	M1 was reported missing by his caregiver after he walked out of the front door at approximately 8:00 PM. Several units responded to the area to search. K9 was called out, air support was not available due to weather. Tamoka bloodhounds responded and began to track. At 12:15 am shortly after the Tomoka Bloodhound exited the woodline northeast of the residence, M1 walked out of the same area. M1 was taken inside the residence and medically cleared by PCFD.
