TYPE	CASE#	LOCATION	SUMMARY
Narcotics	19-29418	Rainstone Ln	RP advised she was attempting to pick up her child from babysitter and the child's father S1 was there causing a problem. LEO arrived on scene and located a male passed out in a running vehicle and initially unresponsive. Med unit called to provide medical assistance. Male came too prior to med unit arrival, and was ultimately secured and charged with narcotic s possession.
Sex Offense	19-29383	Whippoorwill Drive	Possible juvenile sex offense – call still active.
Violation of Injunction	19-29438	Rae Drive	RP advising there is an active injunction on her ex-husband and he continues to text her phone. Charging affidavit completed and forwarded to SAO.
Reckless Driver	19-29459	North Bound	VCSO notified dispatch that they were pursuing a vehicle on I-95 into Flagler County. Flagler units attempted to set up stop sticks ahead of the vehicle but were unsuccessful in deflating any other tires. Once an FCSO vehicle was able to get behind the vehicle, a traffic stop was attempted near the DOT scale house. The vehicle failed to stop and continued north for approximately 1.5 miles before the vehicle pulled over, likely due to mechanical issues. The driver was arrested for fleeing and eluding, driving while license suspended habitual traffic offender, and possession of drug paraphernalia. The female passenger was released on scene without charges.
