CASE #	TYPE	LOCATION	SUMMARY
18-29838	Residential Burglary	Londonderry Dr.	V1 advised unknown suspect(s) entered her garage between 3-28 at approx. 1600 and 3-29 at approx. 1800 and removed a bright green bicycle valued at approximately two hundred dollars. A canvass was met with negative results. Point of entry/exit is the large garage door that she leaves slightly open for her cats at night.
18-29814	Burglary Vehicle	Palm Coast Pkwy NW (Sunshine Academy)	V1 advised she left her vehicle unlocked as she got out to pick up her daughter from school. V1 returned and found out that someone had taken her purse. V1 stated she left her purse on the front passenger side of her vehicle and was only inside the school for about five (5) minutes. Keys to her vehicle, her cell phone and multiple credit/bank cards were stolen.
18-29815	Burglary Vehicle	Belle Terre Pkwy (Buddy Taylor Middle School)	V1 stated that while she was picking her kids up from an extended day at approximately 1650 hours from BTMS her purse was stolen. V1 did say that her car was left unlocked, one laptop, cash was stolen along with the purse.
18-29895	Burglary Vehicle	Raintree Place	V1 advised that she left her black purse with silver lining and blue interior inside her truck located in the floor board in the center console near the transmission. V1 informed she was last with her purse around 2300 hours and noticed her purse missing around 2350 hours. Jewelry, cash and other items stolen,
18-29831	Battery	Wellstone Place	O1 advised her juvenile son V1 informed her that he was "beat up" after school. V1 informed that an 8th grader pulled him off of his bike and picked him up by his legs and punched him in his left ear. V1 advised that a 6th grader heavily damaged his bicycle while he was on the ground. O1 went to the school to report the incident but was told to go home and call LEO because it occurred outside the gate.
18-29853	Disturbance Domestic	Tangerine Avenue	S1 was arrested for domestic battery. V1, her live in boy friend of 17 years, reported that he was attempting to lock S1 out of their bedroom when she kicked the door open into him. The door caused V1 to fall into the dresser and onto the floor injuring his head and elbow. V1 reported that while he was on the floor, Lisa then began kicking him in the ribs.
