TYPE	CASE#	LOCATION	SUMMARY
Burglary-Residential	2019-35112	Wynnfield Dr	Resident advised she left her residence today at approximately 12PM and returned approximately 7PM. When she returned home, she noticed her front door ajar. Upon going inside, the door jamb was broken, and items on the front porch were damaged. A small metal box that was in her closet with documents and $500.00 cash was missing $480.00 in cash, but the suspects left (1) $20.00 bill. No cameras in the area.
Criminal Mischief	2019-35090	Cottonwood Court	Homeowner stated an unknown person pulled the fuse and cut the electrical wires to his A/C unit sometime between 12am and 2am this morning. The homeowner also stated an unknown person let the air out of the tires to his BMW sometime last week.
Baker Act	2019-35107	Robinson Dr	34 YOA male taken into custody and transported to CTTU under a Baker Act.
Physical Disturbance	2019-35171	Blakemore Drive	Units responded to the above address in reference to a 911 hang up. Upon arrival, it was determined that two roommates, O1 and O2, were intoxicated and involved in a fight. Both subjects were uncooperative and a primary aggressor could not be determined. O2 was transported to Advent Health for a laceration to his mouth and pain to his head.
Disturbance Domestic	2019-35137	Ripcord Lane	Juvenile female and her guardian were involved in a verbal disturbance. Both parties were asked if it was physical, upon arrival and both said no. A second deputy spoke to S1 and she stated she was struck in the mouth, which split her lip and was pushed several times. There was no blood in or around her mouth. The original deputy then spoke to S1 again and she stated she was struck, but never mentioned being pushed. With the inconsistencies and no evidence, there were no charges. S1 went to spend the night at O1 boyfriend and his family's home. DCF notified.
Crash with injuries	2019-35201	MM279 North	Three vehicle accident with one driver complaining of neck and back pain but declined transport by rescue. Two lanes were closed for approximately 1 hour.
