| TYPE                     | CASE#           | LOCATION           | SUMMARY   |
|--------------------------|-----------------|--------------------|---|
| Larceny – Grand          | 19-40980 | Curtis Ct          | $10,000 missing. Active investigation.   |
| Larceny- Shoplifter      | 19-41003 | Target             | Repeat shoplifting suspects operating in the Flagler and Volusia County areas seen in Palm Coast store. Subjects concealed several clothing items and left the store. They were stopped by LEO as they exited the store onto the sidewalk.  |
| Disturbance -Physical    | 19-41024 | Senseney Path      | S1 hit V1 and grabbed her by the neck. She was able to get away from S1. S1 was arrest and transported to FCIF  |
| Baker Act                | 19-41033 | East Diamond Drive | Communications received a call from the Veterans Crisis Center advising that they were currently land line with a male who was in his garage with the vehicle running. The VA operator advised that they had voice contact at one time but the male stopped responding. Deputies arrived on scene and could hear the VA operator over the speaker phone and could hear a car running in the garage. Deputies conducted a check of the residence and found a rear sliding glass door unsecured. Due to the exigent circumstances, entry was made into the residence and the male was found unresponsive in the garage slumped over the center console of his vehicle. Deputies moved in and the male became responsive. No other subjects were located in the residence; the male was placed under a Baker Act and was transported to FHF for further medical treatment. No deputies reported any injuries. See report by Deputy Varnes for further. |
| Stolen Vehicle Recovered | 19-39839 | Chestnut Ave       | The ATV that was reported stolen on April 29, 2019, was located on a trail off Orange Blossom in the woods unoccupied. The ATV was returned to the owner and removed from NCIC/FCIC.  |
| Traffic Stop             | 19-40979 | S. Pine St         | Attempted traffic stop on a silver Nissan registered to Bolotina Company. Vehicle fled into the south side of Bunnell and stopped behind the Riverside Apartments. Three black males then fled on foot.   |
| Narcotics                | 19-41006 | E. Booe St         | While searching for the subjects that fled from an earlier traffic stop, a red Lincoln was located near the Riverside Apartments. Upon approaching the vehicle, a scale, and a small amount of cocaine was visible in the back seat.  |
