WATCH COMMANDER: FINK				DATE: 5/3/2018

CASE #	TYPE	LOCATION	SUMMARY
18-41294	Drunk Driver	Moody Blvd	Traffic Stop conducted on a vehicle for speeding. Driver was showing several indications of impairment. S1 was placed under arrest for DUI.
18-41319	Missing Person-Juvenile	Big Bear Lane	RP called to report her nephew M1, who she is the legal guardian of, missing. RP stated at some point he climbed out of his bedroom window. M1 has 2 friends in the neighborhood, deputies checked both homes and both advised he was there earlier, but was not there now. M1 was entered as missing.
18-41273	Burglary-Residence	Underwood Trail	RP advised there were juveniles in the abandoned home. The home was empty upon arrival, but there was some damage done inside. Eventually 3 Juvenile males, all brothers were located. A victim/owner was tracked down, but he did not want to pursue charges. He decided to work out an agreement with the family.
18-41250	Baker Act	292 I-95	Male taken into custody for a Baker Act.
18-41295	Assault and Battery (battery on LEO)	Moody Blvd	Officer requested backup while conducting a trespassing investigation at the Circle K Gas Station. Deputies responded and attempted to apprehend S1 and S1 took flight on foot. Deputies apprehended S1 and S1 struck his head on the pavement. Medical personnel were requested immediately and first aid was provided. The suspect refused medical treatment and therefore was transported to FHF as a precaution due to striking his head. Felony charges for Battery on Law Enforcement and Resisting without Violence will be passed onto dayshift. FHF was requested to notify the FCSO when S1 was being released.
18-41325	Burglary Residential	County Road 200	V1 stated an unknown person entered his residence sometime between May 2, 2018 and May 4, 2018 through the unlocked rear sliding door. V1 stated the suspect took two TVs and the DVR to the home security system. There were also no signs of forced entry.
18-41311	Violation of Injunction	North State Street	V1 stated she was inside Cross Roads Tavern when her husband S1 came inside and started a verbal argument. V1 stated she has an active injunction for protection for DV against S1 that was issued out of Kentucky. Dispatch sent a TTY to the issuing agency and they confirmed the injunction is valid and S1 is to have no contact with V1. S1 left the scene before LEO arrived. A charging affidavit was completed and will be submitted to the State Attorney's Office for their review.
