CASE #	TYPE	LOCATION	SUMMARY
18-55197	Structure Fire	Hammock Beach Cir	RP stated he heard a loud bang then a short time later smelled something burning. RP thought the house could have been struck by lightning, so he called 911. Everyone evacuated from the house. FD located a fire and extinguished it. The fire department advised the fire was consistent with a lightning strike. No injuries and nothing suspicious reported.
18-55170	Baker Act	Zenger Ct	Juvenile transported to HBS without incident.
18-55210	Disturbance Domestic	Seaford Place	V1/S2 reported S1/V2 began to push her and then grabbed her by her neck and slammed her on the ground. V1/S2 stated that her ability to breathe was not hindered by S1/V2's actions. V1/S2 had marks on her neck which correspond with being grabbed by the neck. S1/V2 stated when V1/S2 came over she began pushing him and he only defended himself. He denied grabbing V1/S2 by her neck. S1/V2 was transported to FCIF without incident. Charges for DV Battery against V1/S2 will be forwarded to the State Attorney's Office for review.
18-55214	Larceny	Zephyrlily Pl	RP advised that he recently had two (2) friends over and when they left his house he found his gold 16GB Apple iPad Air 2, serial number DMPPRC3V0G5WT was missing. The iPad was entered into national and state crime information centers as missing.
18-55162	Suspicious incident	London Dr @ Leaver Dr	RP advised that he and his friends were fishing in a pond near the above intersection, when a black Nissan possible Altima, stopped and a light skinned male opened the passenger door shouting "Do you guys want some candy?" The vehicle then sped down London Drive. Units boloed the area but were ultimately unable to locate the vehicle.
18-55177	Larceny	Palm Coast Pkwy	V1 advised that while shopping at publix she began talking to S1 and did not realize her purse was unzipped in the cart that S2 was standing near. V1 advised that she made contact with management after realizing her wallet may have been stolen by the two subjects and upon checking footage it confirmed that her wallet was stolen by the pair.
