CASE #	TYPE	LOCATION	SUMMARY
18-70563	Assist other agency	Ocean Palm Avenue, Flagler Beach	Male was reported to have fallen out of a boat. Marine unit and dive team responded to assist in attempting to locate the male. Fire Flight, Air One, FWC, Coast Guard, and Volusia Marine units also responded to assist.
18-70585	Larceny	Cypress Point Pkwy (Walmart)	V1 stated he arrived at the customer service counter at approximately 6:45 pm to return some items. While at the counter he placed his wallet on the counter. When he got home he realized he left the wallet at Walmart. Loss prevention provided a still picture of an African American female wearing a pink shirt and blue jeans. After V1 leaves the female can be seen on video taking V1 wallet from the counter and placing it in her purse.
18-70558	Domestic Disturbance	Ulster Ct.	Units responded to this residence in reference to a 911 investigation without voice contact. The family was inside of a living room area, when a young child fell, hitting his back against a play set. S1 assumed V1 had caused such action and aggressively moved toward him, swinging a closed fist. S1 unintentionally struck his wife, V2, who attempted to intervene between him and V1. S1 again swung a closed fist, this time striking V1 in the head. No visible injuries were observed. S1 was arrested in reference to battery (domestic violence) and tampering with a victim.
