WATCH COMMANDER: NEAT				DATE: 9/17/18

CASE #	TYPE	LOCATION	SUMMARY
88203-18	Disturbance Domestic	Bainbridge Ln	S1 was placed under arrest after it was discovered that he grabbed his wife's wrists and dragged her multiple times causing bruising and scratching. Both parties advised that he did this due to her "defying" him and not caring for his mother.
88252-18	Disturbance Domestic (Baker Act)	Birthstone Way	RP reported that his wife, S1, was arguing with him throughout the evening. He tried to separate himself and sleep on the couch when S1 struck him in the head with a glass jar that caused a deep laceration and a considerable amount of bleeding. S1 then fled the residence in a 2008 white in color Mazda CX9 without her phone but had her purse with her Ruger .38 caliber revolver. Units BOLO'd the area and her vehicle was eventually located at Wal-Mart. It was unknown if S1 was in the vehicle due to heavily tinted windows and PA announcements were started. S1 was in the vehicle, listened to verbal commands, and was secured. S1 was arrested for aggravated battery and a Baker Act form was also completed and left with the jail. The firearm was discovered in her purse and taken for safe keeping.
88286-18	Stolen Vehicle (Recovered by SJSO)	Breeze Hill Ln	V1 advised that his 2015 Chevrolet Colorado crew cab was missing from his driveway and he had been missing a pair of keys recently but did not know how. OnStar disabled the ignition and SJSO was notified of the location and recovered the vehicle.
88213-18	Baker Act	Folcroft Ln	Juvenile transported to Halifax Hospital.
88265-18	Baker Act	Barrington Dr	RP advised his father, O1, has dementia and he awoke to O1 at his bedside armed with a revolver. RP was able to get O1 outside of the residence and call law enforcement. O1 was still armed with the handgun while outside the residence. A react team was established and approached the residence. Verbal communication was established and O1 was able to be placed into protective custody under a Baker Act without incident. The firearm was taken for safe keeping.
18-88191	Domestic Battery	Walnut Ave	RP said her juvenile son, S1, "snapped". S1 began kicking in her kitchen cabinets before grabbing hold of her and shoving her out of his way and into a wall as he made his way through the residence. O1 and S1 left the scene on foot and were last seen running away from the residence. Due to comments made by S1, Fireflight responded to assist with locating both subjects. Both were located walking on Papaya toward Mahogany. S1 was arrested for domestic battery.

18-88180	Stolen Tags	Lancewood St	George Pavone advised that today (09/17/2018) he noticed that both his trailer tags (EUJM64/Decal 06395479/9 and GTAJ77/Decal 06395453/9) and Boat decal (06395428/2019) were missing. All tags and decals were entered into FCIC/NCIC as being stolen.
