Operation School Zone- Safety is NO ACCIDENT! Drive Safe today and protect the future!

Flagler County students are returning to school on Friday, August 10th. Students and school buses will be back on the roads. The Flagler County Sheriff's Office (FSCO) will have increased patrols in school zones and bus stops throughout the county from August 9th through August 24th to help keep kids safe.

The Flagler County Sheriff's Office will be participating in an enforcement, education and awareness operation within the school zones and residential bus stops locations. This operation will serve as a reminder to the community that school is starting and everyone needs to be aware of an increase in pedestrian/ bicycle traffic within the school zones and residential areas.

"This is an all-hands on deck operation to ensure the safety of our children. Deputies from all units including traffic, K-9, C.O.P.S. and school resource officers (SRDs) and administrative staff, including myself, will be active during our operation,” said Sheriff Staly.

In addition to SRD presence on each school campus, proactive patrols will continue throughout the school year. FCSO will be sharing live updates via Facebook of traffic details at school zones throughout the day.
