Man Arrested for Burglary Admits to Others

Deputies responded to a residential burglary around 11:32 a.m. Monday morning on Brian Lane in Palm Coast where a foot pursuit ended with the arrest of a suspect.

A resident was home and confronted the suspect when he attempted to enter the home. Deputies established a perimeter in the area of Brittany Lane and Bridgehaven Drive. The suspect was spotted heading south where he jumped a fence leading to Extra Space Storage on Palm Coast Parkway. The suspect was located soon after in the area of the Latin Market & Bakery at 300 Palm Coast Parkway and taken into custody. Once in custody, the suspect admitted to committing other burglaries in the area off Bridgehaven Drive.

"Deputies had this guy in custody within 15 minutes of receiving the 9-1-1 call. The prompt action of our deputies allowed us to find him and take him into custody quickly and take him to the Green Roof Inn where he belongs," Sheriff Rick Staly said. "Detectives are now working to identify other potential victims."

Andrew Thomas Crosswell, 29, is currently being booked into the Flagler County Detention Facility on charges of criminal mischief and burglary.

If you or someone you know lives in the area of Bridgehaven Drive in Palm Coast and believes their home or vehicle was burglarized today, please contact the Flagler County Sheriff's Office at 386-313-4911 immediately to report it. Deputies believe he made entry through the rear of the homes and small items and food were possibly stolen. It is believed that the burglaries are contained to the area shown in the map above.
