FCSO Sergeant Graduates Leadership Academy

Sergeant Jennifer Taylor of the Flagler County Sheriff's Office recently graduated from the Florida Criminal Justice Executive Institute's 39th Florida Leadership Academy.

"Sergeant Taylor is a supervisor in our Investigative Services Division," Sheriff Rick Staly said. "I'm proud of the work she does and for her commitment to bettering her already excellent leadership skills."

The graduates met for four week-long sessions at the Gainesville Police Department in Gainesville, Florida. They learned skills necessary to support the needs of their agencies and their communities as they prepare for future challenges.

The goal of the Florida Leadership Academy is to prepare first-line supervisors in criminal justice organizations to exemplify the character and integrity expected of criminal justice professionals and to examine the various components necessary to being an efficient leader. This training is a part of the Florida Department of Law Enforcement and affiliated with the State University System.
