UPDATE: Driver in Hit-and-Run Crash Identified, Warrant Issued for Arrest

A Flagler County Sheriff's deputy, Bret Wood, was injured on Wednesday when his motorcycle crashed while attempting to apprehend a fleeing driver from a previous crash. The driver has now been identified as 74-year-old James Rex Voorhees from South Carolina.

The Flagler County Sheriff's Office contacted the Beauford County Sheriff's Office, the county where Voorhees resides, to request mutual aid in locating Voorhees. Beauford County was able to provide a driver's license photograph as well as phone numbers and addresses on file for Voorhees. Voorhees was unable to be contacted at all phone numbers and addresses supplied.

After a positive identification of Voorhees as the driver involved in the two crashes, it was discovered that Voorhees' driver's license has been suspended since July of 2016. An arrest affidavit was completed and a warrant signed for nationwide extradition for Voorhees' arrest.

Flagler County Sheriff's Deputy Injured In Crash, Non-Life Threatening Injuries

A Flagler County Sheriff’s deputy was injured today when his motorcycle crashed while attempting to apprehend a fleeing driver from a previous crash.

Bret Wood, a deputy on a motorcycle unit, responded to the scene of a crash at State Road 100 and Interstate 95. Once on scene, one vehicle involved in the crash fled. Deputy Wood attempted a traffic stop on the vehicle, an older model white Buick Rendezvous with a South Carolina license plate, as it entered the on-ramp for I-95 South. The vehicle stopped abruptly causing Deputy Wood to lose control of his motorcycle and strike the pavement. The vehicle then fled the scene.

Deputy Wood suffered non-life threatening injuries to his chin, chest and arms. Sheriff Rick Staly arrived at the crash scene to check on Deputy Wood as he was being placed in the ambulance to be transported to the hospital. Deputy Wood is expected to make a full recovery.

“Thank God Deputy Wood was wearing his helmet because he took a hard hit to the head,” Sheriff Rick Staly said. “I’m glad that he’s going to be okay. Now we need to track down the driver.”

A be-on-the-lookout for the vehicle that fled has been issued to surrounding counties. The driver has charges pending of leaving the scene of a crash with property damage, for the initial crash Deputy Wood was responding to, and leaving the scene of a crash with injury, a felony, for the crash involving Deputy Wood.

The driver was described as a white male in his 60s, approximately 5’7” with white hair, wearing a light colored shirt and brown pants. Anyone with information on this case is asked to contact the Sheriff’s Office at 386-313-4911 or call Crimestoppers at 1-888-277-TIPS (8477) to remain anonymous. You may be eligible for a reward up to $1,000.00.
