FCSO Graduates Traffic Crash Investigation (TCI) Class

FCSO graduated six C.O.P.'s (Citizen Observer Patrol) volunteers on Friday, December 15. Albert Difederico, Carlos Nunez, Carolyn Buford, Robert Millett, Roger Achin, and Steve Campbell all completed the 80-hour Traffic Crash Investigation class and received their graduation certificates.

Sheriff Rick Staly with new TCI graduates, COP volunteers, Sgt. David Williams and Cmdr. Gerald Ditolla.

"We cannot thank these volunteers enough for their hard work," Sheriff Rick Staly said. "These men and women spend their own personal time volunteering to help their community and we greatly appreciate it. I thank every graduate here for their hard work and dedication to serving Flagler County."

The graduates will respond to investigate minor traffic accidents. So far in 2017, TCI volunteers have handled over 700 traffic crashes allowing deputies to focus on more serious accidents and crimes.
