Medical Wing at Flagler County Jail

To Be Re-Named After Retired Medical Director

Today Sheriff Rick Staly recognized Dr. Morris Carter for more than 40 years of honorable and dedicated service to the Flagler County Sheriff's Office and the inmates housed at the Flagler County Jail, or as Sheriff Staly often refers to as "The Green Roof Inn".

At the presentation Dr. Carter was presented with a plaque to commemorate his retirement and an additional certificate of appreciation, but that wasn't all. Sheriff Staly concluded the presentation with an announcement that as of today the Jail Medical Wing would be re-named the Dr. Carter Medical Wing in Dr. Carter' honor.

"Dr. Morris Carter was the Jail Medical Director for over 40 years. That is half a lifetime. He has brought us to where we are today and has really molded the jail's approach to medical care," Sheriff

Staly said. “Re-Naming the medical wing after him just feels right.”

In addition to serving as a doctor at the Flagler County jail for more than 40 years and medical director for Flagler Health, Carter has treated generations of Flagler County residents. The Flagler County Sheriff’s Office thanks him again for all he has done for our Sheriff’s Office and the community.
