Sheriff Staly "Arrests" Community Leaders for 2nd Annual Relay for Life Jail'n Bail!

Flagler County Sheriff Rick Staly "arrested" several Community leaders this afternoon - all for a good cause! For the second year in a row, Sheriff Staly made numerous "arrests" to benefit the American Cancer Society's (ACS) Jail'n Bail event that has raised over $4,000 so far.

Numerous warrants were read for charges including Jorge Gutierrez's for showing too much enthusiasm and passion on Monday mornings. Jimmy Millhollin was charged with celebrating Chamber Chair Emeritus too much. Principal John Fanelli was charged with chasing down students in the hallway to see if they have good grades. Becky Pourchot was charged with spreading glitter without a permit and assaulting people with hugs. And Suzanne Johnston was charged with being overly competitive and bringing gifts to neighbors without a permit.

Once the warrant was read, Sheriff Staly would make the “arrest” and then bring the “arrestee” before a “judge” (aka Palm Coast Councilman Bob Cuff) where “bail” was set. Then, the arrestee would have the opportunity to secure their “bail” in the form of pledges to benefit the ACS’s Relay for Life event to be held on April 20th at Palm Coast’s Central Park at Town Center.

“This is a great event to raise money for a disease that has touched every family in one way or another,” Sheriff Staly said. “Thanks to everyone who participated and made this event a success.”

The donations raised from the Jail’n Bail will help the ACS provide support for people affected with cancer, as well as fund research to help protect future generations. For more information on how you can help in the fight against cancer visit www.cancer.org.
