Who Is The Fastest Lawman?

On April 15th at high noon, Sheriff Rick Staly will compete to keep his title of "Fastest Lawman" in the area at the 2018 CFDA Cowboy Fast Draw Competition. His challengers include Volusia County Sheriff Mike Chitwood, Putnam County Sheriff Gator DeLoach, and Florida Highway Patrol Corporal Pete Young. Each competitor raises money for a charity of their choice.

Last year the Flagler County Sheriff's Office raised over $9,000.00 for the Sheriff's charity, the Florida Sheriff's Youth Ranches (FSYR). Sheriff Staly serves on the Board of Directors for the FSYR and has supported the charity for his entire career.

This year's competition.

The Law Enforcement Shootout is a timed event using single action revolvers with wax bullets, shooting at metal targets, using western style cowboy gun belts and holsters. If you'd like to make a donation, visit: <https://www.youthranches.org/index.php/ways-to-give/online-donation>. Select Campaign: "Where most needed" and under Additional Comments, please add "Flagler Sheriff Fastest Gun Competition." If you prefer a check, it can be made payable to the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches and dropped off or mailed to the Sheriff's Operations Center at 901 E Moody Blvd, Bunnell.

The Law Enforcement Shootout will take place on Sunday, April 15 at High Noon (12:00 p.m.) at the Florida Agricultural Museum at 7900 Old Kings Road in Palm Coast, Florida. You will want to arrive early to watch Sheriff Staly's special arrival.
