to law enforcement officer and one count of threatening to throw, place or discharge a destructive device.

“We will not take threats of any kind lightly,” Sheriff Rick Staly said. “Threatening to blow up buildings or kill law enforcement officers for doing their job will not be tolerated. Just this Tuesday, we had funeral services for two Florida deputies that were murdered while eating lunch. Threatening or attacking us will only get you taken to the Green Roof Inn quicker.”

Crown is being held at the Flagler County Detention Facility with no bond. Brandon is held on a $3,000.00 bond.

Crown has past arrests dating back to 2010 that include battery domestic violence and trespassing. Brandon has numerous arrests for violent offenses including aggravated assault with a deadly weapon, aggravated stalking, domestic battery, and felony battery.
