FCSO SIU Serves Warrants for Palm Coast Drug Trafficker

BUNNELL, Fla. — Following a lengthy investigation by the Flagler County Sheriff's Office Special Investigations Unit, detectives served three arrest warrants on Tram Nguyen, 37, a Palm Coast drug trafficker and current inmate at the Sheriff Perry Hall Inmate Detention Facility. These warrants stem from a series of undercover narcotics purchases that occurred earlier this year.

On August 25, SIU detectives obtained three warrants for Nguyen for trafficking in methamphetamine (28 grams to 200 grams), sale of methamphetamine within 1,000 feet of a place of worship, sale of cocaine within 1,000 feet of a place of worship, and three counts of unlawful use of a two-way communications device.

during a traffic stop.

“This poison peddler has already been in jail for the last few months, and now she is facing even more charges that will keep this poison peddler off the street thanks to the hard work of our Special Investigations Unit,” said Sheriff Rick Staly. “Our team works diligently to put drug dealers in the Green Roof Inn before they can sell a fatal dose.”

Nguyen currently faces nine felony charges. She is being held at the Sheriff Perry Hall Inmate Detention Facility on a $337,500 bond.
